

Alberta Advantage Immigration Program (AAIP) – Rural Renewal Stream

Settlement fund requirements

The amount of settlement funds you must have depends on the number of family members you have, including yourself, and the population size of your designated community where you plan to settle in Alberta.

Funds must be unencumbered and readily available to you to meet the minimum settlement funds requirement. Real estate property, jewelry, cars and other personal assets are not eligible.

If your spouse is coming with you, you can count money you have together in a joint account. You may be able to count money in an account under your spouse's name only, but you must prove you have access to the money.

The funds must be available at the time of application and assessment. You must prove to an AAIP officer that you can legally access the funds when you arrive in Alberta.
